Agricultural Inspectors make sure that farming, logging and fishing operations follow laws and quality standards.

A Farm Manager is responsible for tilling, planting, fertilizing, spraying, cultivating, and harvesting crops. After the harvest, they look after crop storage and packaging.