Environmental Educators lead school and community groups in activities focused on the environment. They raise awareness of environmental issues and teach people how to live sustainably.

PARK RANGER

Park Rangers protect state and national parks. They educate visitors about the natural resources, ecosystems and wildlife within them.