Electricians install, maintain, and repair electrical wiring and equipment in homes and businesses. They make sure that work follows rules and safety codes.

Construction Managers plan, direct, coordinate and lead construction projects from start to finish. They make sure materials are used properly, costs stay within the budget and work progresses smoothly.